Honor Bank promotes Norman Plumstead to President & CEO

Honor, Michigan – Honor Bank is happy to announce the promotion of Norman Plumstead to President & CEO, effective July 1, 2020. Norm has been serving Honor Bank since June of 2000, most recently as Senior Vice President & Chief Operating Officer, in addition to serving on the Board of Directors.

"Norm is an accomplished executive and team-focused leader, whose contributions to Honor Bank have helped us achieve record-level performance", said Gary Waterson, Honor Bank Board Chair. "He has the trust and respect of our talented employees and Board, alike. Norm is the perfect fit to lead Honor Bank toward continued success in the years to come."

"Since our founding, Honor Bank has helped make northern Michigan families, businesses and communities more prosperous, and I'm proud to be part of an exceptional team of world-class community bankers that focuses on that purpose every day," said Plumstead. "It's a privilege to work in such service-minded culture, with supportive, positive colleagues who are striving to be their best."

Norm came to Honor Bank from the Chicago area, where he started his banking career with Bank One. Norm graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from Central Michigan University. He is also a graduate of the American Bankers Association Stonier Graduate School of Banking, earning a Wharton Leadership Certificate. Norm enjoys spending time with his wife, Cile, and two sons, Henry and Brody, as well as running, cooking, and reading.
