Honor Bank Employee Karen Bailey To Retire After 42 Years of Service

Honor, February 8, 2021 – Honor Bank announced today that after 42 years of service at the Honor branch, Karen Bailey has decided to retire effective Friday, February 12. She has served as a teller in the Honor branch drive-up for most of her career, bringing a regular warm smile and excellent service to thousands of northern Michigan customers over her tenure.

In celebration of this bittersweet occasion, Honor Bank is encouraging customers to come to a “drive-up party” to honk horns and share well wishes February 9-12 in the Honor branch drive-up.

Honor Bank President Norm Plumstead shares, “Karen’s service to the Bank and our customers over the last 42 years has been nothing short of extraordinary. She will be missed by customers and teammates alike.”
